

DISABILITY AWARENESS CAMPAIGN AWARDS

Award Description: This award recognizes one individual and one group or organization who has organized an exemplary Disability Awareness campaign which has changed attitudes and enhanced the perception of the value and contributions of people with disabilities.

Eligibility and Selection: All community, business, or school Disability Awareness campaigns that occurred during March are eligible for submission. Nominees can be an individual, group or organization.

The Council will select up to two winners based on the criteria established for the award.

Criteria: Candidates considered for this award will be judged for their success in using campaign materials provided by the Council, as well as other resources, to organize a Disability Awareness campaign according to the following criteria:

- (a) Involvement: Candidate will have developed, organized, and implemented activities to benefit people in terms of knowledge, attitudes, values, skills, or mutual understanding and cooperation.
- (b) Collaboration: Candidate will have developed cooperative relationships and linkage with other individuals, organizations, and/or community groups.
- (c) Originality: This category challenges candidates to develop activities that are new and exciting in ways that will draw community interest and participation of the target audience.
- (d) Public Relations/Outreach: Awareness activities and events are published in the news or other media channels.
