

Hancock County Cemetery Commission

24 February 2005

To: Indiana Historical Bureau

Re: 2004 Annual Report

RECEIVED
MAR 02 2005
INDIANA HISTORICAL BUREAU

BUDGET

Beg. Balance - $ 224.44

County funds - 1820.00

EXPENDITURES

Chappel-Shore sign - $ 129.00

John Walters 200.00

Office supplies 32.82

Power Wagon 1300.00

White portland 38.94

ACTIVITIES

Talked with the county planning commission about getting the cemeteries included in the master plan

Attended a GPS presentation by the DNR and received a mapping program

Recorded GPS locations for all accessible cemeteries

Provided readings to the GIS Dept for inclusion on the computer map

Talked with Mayor Fleming about funding for Old Greenfield restoration

Finished work on Chappel-Shore cemetery, including the sign and steps

Held rededication ceremony for Chappel-Shore

Began work on Scotton cemetery

Learned of the impending sale of the land on which Scotton lies

Submitted 2005 budget request to the County Auditor

Conducted initial plotting and photographing of McNamee Cemetery

Accepted the resignation of Helen Thomas

Leisa Harmon joined the Commission as member-at-large

Conducted deed research on Pratt Cemetery

Obtained approval to add the Commission to the Hancock County Government website

Placed notice in Daily Reporter requesting donations

Began restoration work on Pratt Cemetery

Talked with Gary Frieden about signing for Pratt

Judy Fuller-Davis' term expired; she will continue on the board for another term,
Subject to the approval of the Commissioners

Election of officers:

Judy Davis-Fuller	-President
Jim Shelby	-Vice-President
Helen Parker	-Secretary
Richard Parker	-Treasurer
Leisa Harmon	-Member-at-large

PLANS FOR 2005

Work with developer Harold Gibson on continuing restoration of Scotton Cemetery

Finish work on Pratt Cemetery

Continue efforts to fund the restoration of Old Greenfield Cemetery

Continue preliminary registration of all county cemeteries with the DNR

Promote the activities of the commission and encourage donations and volunteers

Respectfully,

Richard E. Parker
Treasurer

cc: Hancock County Commissioners
Hancock County Council